Welcome to HuggleHounds! This year, our product pages are organized by both launch chronology and toy type. Refer to the handy guide to easily navigate our catalogue.
All work and no play makes Jack a dull…hey now, wait a minute. Play doesn’t make HuggleHounds dull. In fact, PLAY is what we’re all about – it IS our work! Creating the most fun, stylish, and innovative dog toys gets Team HuggleHounds pretty jazzed, and for us, it’s not work at all. It’s as much fun as grownup dog lovers can have! We spend night and day thinking up fun, new ways to make every dog a happy dog!

In fact, this year, our 2018 catalogue is divided by PLAY-TIME, beginning with toy introductions available Q1 2018 and extending throughout the year to Holiday 2018, which is as lush, beautiful and festive as the year to Holiday 2018, which we’ve ever introduced! Then our catalogue paging transitions to IS our work! Creating the most fun, stylish, and innovative dog toys gets our Team HuggleHounds pretty jazzed, and for us...

In 2017, HuggleHounds fun was amplified by the fact we scored another year of record-breaking growth, and another year of industry recognition when we were honored with our second Pet Product News International Editors’ Choice Award – heart-warming recognition for our work, and our family of paw-some products!

Those same products, and the support of you, our valued retail partners, is what drove our record-breaking sales, and we’re doubled-down on important ways in which we can support you and your business, from new web services on hugglehounds.com to expanded digital assets - images, sales tools and collateral materials - available on our hugglehounds.zenfolio.com site. It’s important we know what you need, and when you need it, so if you have feedback or suggestions regarding these efforts, make sure and send them to us at info@allurepetproducts.com. Our 2017 sales volume and projected growth also resulted in a year-end move to a larger and more technically-advanced warehouse facility. Located in Carlisle, PA, our facility has state-of-the-art technology meaning HuggleHounds can get our products to your stores faster and more efficiently than ever before – even more important as we grow our seasonal offerings and special collections. Recent new product introductions included our Knotties with special collections. Recent new product introductions included our Knotties with logos from the best-known colleges and universities across the country. HuggleHounds University toys will be available in to alumni, friends and school fans everywhere.

“Preparations for HuggleHounds’ 10th birthday, and we’re looking forward to partnering with our retailers and suppliers to make it one VERY special party!”

It’s an exciting time for HuggleHounds and our growing family of huggle-happy team members! We’re gearing up for 2019 when we’ll celebrate our 10th birthday, and we’re looking forward to partnering with our retailers and suppliers to make it one VERY special party! If there’s an opportunity for HuggleHounds to support your business in a key initiative or anniversary in the coming year, make sure and give us a call – we’re excited to invite your business to our birthday party and help bring added visibility to your efforts via our planned promotions and social media channels! As a company recognized by World Pet Association with its Inaugural Good Works Award (in recognition of our ongoing support of warriors and veterans via Warrior Canine Connection, our contributions to Bubba’s Beds for Shelter Dogs and Lone Star State Malinois and their support of active and retired military), HuggleHounds’ commitment to serving both local communities and national causes grows every year. Along with it, our commitment to the pet toy category and the industry overall expands as well. As such, we thought it was high time we put our beliefs and company values in writing, and share them with you here. Our pledge to you is to honor them every day – feel free to hold us to them!

HuggleKats are adorable kitty-sized versions of our HuggleHounds characters, with US-sourced organic catnip.

What better way for dogs to relax after a day of play than diving into the lush feel of HuggleHounds HuggleFleece®. HuggleFleece mats, toys and pouf beds are made of soft, dense, synthetic lambswool and feature the same, great attributes as natural lambswool - hypoallergenic and stain resistant. This sink-in-soft material keeps dogs comfortable while cushioning joints and regulating body temperature and wicking moisture. HuggleFleece mats are two inches of lush, thick, double-sided softness, making for the perfect choice inside a crate or as a portable dog bed.
